PLEASE NOTE: Leadership class is a prerequisite if you are interested in becoming an instructor once you are an adult.

All registered adults are invited to participate in classes. However, if you have a preschool aged child you will have to provide supervision for them while you are taking the class.

Notes about classes -

- All classes are optional for adults.
- All students will be grouped homogeneously according to age into meaningful, manageable classes.
- Senior student and adult courses will be offered according to interest. Class size will also be a determining factor. The timetable will reflect the preferred choices.
- Placement in classes will be on a first come basis according to date application is received.
- Each class includes materials for one project. If you wish to do a second project in the same class, there will be a fee to cover the cost of supplies.

For each applicant mail to the address below.

This completed Application, a Health Information form, Consent/Waivers form(s) and an Accompanying Adult Consent form (if applicable) along with a $25.00 administration fee, as well as a post-dated cheque to cover the remainder of the fees (cheque may be post-dated to June 15, 2017).
